

As you say this world is hard sometimes
Yes we failed but we got right back up
Body and mind marked with bruises
Show them with pride, bring out every corner

Underline every imperfection
(Every imperfection)
And if you run out of skin, take mine
(Any scratch, any wound on you)
Midday light, no misperception
(No misperception)
While they all lie in the sun, you shine
(Everywhere, everywhere it's you)

As you see, we're up against the wall
No escape without a new pale scar
Then all in plain sight! Try, isn't too late
Just like a vase your own Kintsugi

Underline every imperfection
(Every imperfection)
And if you run out of skin, take mine
(Any scratch, any wound on you)
Midday light, no misperception
(No misperception)
While they all lie in the sun, you shine
(Everywhere, everywhere it's you)
