

Losing Game

Kingcrow

Fine, you made me cry, screaming at night alone
I'll never gonna say it... I'll maybe gonna fake you out

I'm what you look for to run away from all
You'll never gonna admit, you'll never gonna embrace this truth

Why don't we smile, smile again?
Why don't we try playing fair?

Wait! This pointless fight wears out the mind and bones
You'll never ask to stay, I'll never gonna beg for sure

Tired, we know we lied, how did we get so damn far?
You'll never gonna change, I'll never gonna change, will you?

Why don't we smile, smile again?
Why don't we try playing fair?

The rain that keeps fallin', the rage that keeps growin'
The rain that keeps fallin', the rage that keeps growin' on and on

Now the curtain has fallen
Now the curtain has fallen
Now the curtain has fallen
Now the curtain has fallen

Now the curtain has fallen (Never let you see my pain)
Now the curtain has fallen
Now the curtain has fallen (I'm the one that gets you through it)
Now the curtain has fallen

Now the curtain has fallen (Never let you see my pain)
Now the curtain has fallen
Now the curtain has fallen (I'm the one that gets you through it)
Now the curtain has fallen

Now the curtain has fallen
Now the curtain has fallen
Now the curtain has fallen
Now the curtain has fallen

Now the curtain has fallen (Never let you see my pain)
Now the curtain has fallen
Now the curtain has fallen (I'm the one that gets you through it)
Now the curtain has fallen

Now the curtain has fallen (Never let you see my pain)
Now the curtain has fallen
Now the curtain has fallen (I'm the one that gets you through it)
Now the curtain has fallen

Now the curtain has fallen (Never let you see my pain)
Now the curtain has fallen
Now the curtain has fallen (I'm the one that gets you through the dark)
Now the curtain has fallen
