

Hey Mama

Kingdom Come

Every Monday, I'm feeling the blues
Every Tuesday, I try to get through Every Wednesday, I had too much booze
Coming Thursday, I try to keep cool

Every Friday, the weekend in sight
Every Saturday, I still don't feel right
Coming Sunday, I'm asking why
Can't the next day, leave me behind

Hey Mama, you gave me life
Hey Mama, I wonder why
They're saying, there's much more to life
Besides working, and buying more time

There's much more to life
Than buying more time
