

Skip The Cover And Feel

Kingdom Come

Spreading word again
They told me to
Give 'm some' to write

Like explaining a book
It says it all
Take a closer look

Skip the cover and feel
My own way to scream
Cannot translate a dream

Not my native tongue
I'm chasing words
Cannot slow my mind

Not the words that count
It's how it feels
Only triggered by sound

Skip the cover and feel
My own way to scream
Cannot translate a dream
