

Twilight Cruiser

Kingdom Come

I can hear the silence, in the dark
Closing in the distance, to my heart.

Now and then a quick glance, at the stars,
Coming of a deep trance, peace at large

Like a soothing shelter over me
I have come to love her mystery

Making me surrender, letting go
Guiding me so tender, very slow

When the night is falling
I hear voices calling
Like an aimless shooter
I'm a Twilight Cruiser
