

Along the Path to Ruin

Kingdom of Sorrow

Still condemned for the sacrifice it took its toll to dig every wound

Now let my path be lit with fires of burning pages a new fate uncovered

You'll always find a way to dig beneath the hurt

Now fires light my way through blindness, embittered

You'll always find a way to cut away the curse

Now fires light my way along the path to ruin

Through it all, forbidden new fate uncovered, new fate uncovered

The coldest heart wills since this again

Now the truth will dawn emerging from winter's conflict

Exposed in isolation dig, dig my way out

Crawling and clawing reach to the surface, reaching

Hands appear through the fog, hands appear crawling for ages

You'll always find a way to dig beneath the hurt

Now fires light my way through blindness, embittered

You'll always find a way to cut away the curse

Now fires light my way, along the path to ruin
