

Caroline

With your head up out my window
And your weathered hair blowing in the breeze
And bruises on your knees

Destiny

Took us further than we'd hoped for
From the dandelions pressed against your chin
To the evenings coming in

Little more than all I am
Walking out on ecstasy
Heartache to the west of me, Ahh
And everything you ever said
'Rolling round inside my head
And it's sad now that it's history
But it's all you've ever wanted
It's all you've ever wanted

Could be we're too far gone for saving
Time of death has been pronounced
Sullen handshakes 'round the house
Did you forget to ring your aul lad
When you told him 'bout the news
Did he know just what to do

Little more than all I am
Walking out on ecstasy
Heartache to the west of me, Ahh
Everything you ever said
Rolling 'round inside my head
And it's sad now that it's history
But it's all you've every wanted
It's all you've ever wanted

Ohhhhh, Ahhhhh, Ahhhhh, Ahh
Ohhhhh, Ahhhhh, Ahhhhh, Ahh

Little more than all I am
Walking out on ecstasy
Heartache to the west of me, Ahh
All I still do
Everything you ever said
Rolling 'round inside my head
And it's sad now that it's history
But it's all you've ever wanted
It's all you ever wanted

Ohhhhh, Ahhhhh, Ahhhhh, Ahh
