

flowers-fire

Kingfishr

Little words you said spring to mind
Past my bed, both entwined
Was I being inconsistent?
I'm sorry, I know that I want this
For all my life
Was it my imagination consumin'?
These flowers, still bloomin'
They're caught in a fire

Is the answer in the Phoenix
To the questions of my life?
I could be screamin' hallelujah
If I could only turn back time
Take back all those things I said
In the tempest of a moment
But oh, my soul has gone and left me
In the depths he begs for death
Hallelujah
Hallelu-
Hallelujah
Hallelu-

All I am
All I'll ever be
And all my distant constellations
Right in front of me
See my flowers in the fire, babe
And the world is standin' still
Her eyes, they wander over me
My heart, it starts to fill
There must be somethin' in the water
Am I drownin' in my reign?
A feelin' washes over me
I should be callin' out your name
And all I am
All I'll ever be
And all my distant constellations
Right in front of me

All I am
All I'll ever be
