

Go Loud

Kingfishr

Go loud, my love
Go loud, go loud
Save you, save me
Go loud, go loud

And I wonder if I'll ever hear love again
And I wonder if my heart is yours till bitter end

So say what you want this to be
And I'll give you an answer
I'll give you my residue
The crimson on my bones

Go loud, my love
Go loud, go loud
With or without
Go loud, go loud

And I wonder if the change in me is all in vain
And I wonder if my solitude is all I've gained

So say what you want this to be
And I'll give you an answer
I'll give you my residue
The crimson on my bones
So tell me what you're asking of me
If there's something still worth saving
I'll be there to die, if there's blood left in the stone

Go loud
Go loud
Go loud

Go loud
Go loud
Go loud
Go loud
