

Leave

Kingfishr

Forever runs away sometimes
It gets easier to let go
Yet another sacrifice
As I hold on to your echoes

When you're gonna leave?
When you're gonna leave?
When you're gonna leave? Oh?
When you're gonna leave?

Remembering the times gone by
Pretending we were heroes in the lifeboat
Staying up 'til half past nine
Feeling like a stranger now that I'm gone

When you're gonna leave?
When you're gonna leave?
When you're gonna leave? Oh?
When you're gonna leave?

I promise there'll be time to save this
I'm still figuring it out
I promise there'll be time to save this
I'm still figuring it out
Living on a landmine, oh
Giving you the hardest time, oh
I promise there'll be time to save this
I'm still figuring it out

When you're gonna leave?
When you're gonna leave?
When you're gonna leave? Oh?
When you're gonna leave?

Living on a landmine, oh
Giving you the hardest time, oh
I promise there'll be time to save this
I'm still figuring it out

Oh, oh, oh, oh
