

A Little Bit of Faith

Kings Kaleidoscope

You've been running, you've been waiting
You're up ahead and here again, you're right on time
On time
You've been loving, you've been praying
So take a breath and don't forget you're by my side
My side

Oh it's gonna be okay with a little bit of faith
Oh it's gonna be okay with a little bit of fate
Oh it's gonna be okay with a little bit of grace
Oh it's gonna be okay with a little bit of praise

Now you're living in the music
Now you're laughing with the new grin, you're so alive
Alive, uh
Now you're singing what the truth is
Now you're dancing, looking foolish, you've found the light
The light, uh

Oh it's gonna be okay with a little bit of faith
Oh it's gonna be okay with a little bit of fate
Oh it's gonna be okay with a little bit of grace
Oh it's gonna be okay with a little bit of praise
Oh it's gonna be okay with a little bit of faith
Oh it's gonna be okay with a little bit of fate
Oh it's gonna be okay with a little bit of grace
Oh it's gonna be okay with a little bit of praise

La-la-la-la
Oh, a little bit of faith
La-la-la-la
Yeah, a little bit of grace
La-la-la-la
C'mon, a little bit of fate
La-la-la-la
Just a little bit of praise
