

You came in a minute
You took me by surprise
With a love like summer air
On a moonlit mountain side
When my mind was a prison
You gave me the keys to life

I cannot stop exclaiming
I cannot stop proclaiming

You are glorious
Holy Jehovah Divine
You are beautiful
King of Creation arise
Hear the earth sing
An orchestra of life
You are my delight

You came in a minute
You took me by surprise
With a peace like winter snow
Falling softly through the sky
And now I am living
Confident in Christ

I cannot stop exclaiming
I cannot stop proclaiming

You are glorious
Holy Jehovah Divine
You are beautiful
King of Creation arise
Hear the earth sing
An orchestra of life
You are my delight

In rocks and skies and trees
Your beauty revives me
You lift the waking burden from my shoulders
Your glory's all around
I'm caught up in the sound
Creation bows and sings
"All praise to the King!"

You are glorious
Holy Jehovah Divine
You are beautiful
King of Creation arise
Hear the earth sing
An orchestra of life
You are my delight

You are divine
Divine!
