

I don't doubt, I've been found in a better way
Still I'm questioning, wait here, wait here
You're my sun, you're my moon
You're my meantime, my life
Wait here, wait here

I wonder but I want you more
Infinity is just the floor
No matter what I'm searching for
I love you more than my reasons why

Stop, wait, speak straight
Come again
Help me find a sign in all the lines you're coloring
Look deep into the valley of your shadow covering

Chasing your riptides
Facing the fallout
Oh, I sit with you now
I love you more than the reasons

I wonder but I want you more
Infinity is just the floor
No matter what I'm searching for
I love you more than my reasons why
More than my reasons why
More than my reasons why
Oh, I sit with you now
I love you more than my reasons why

You let me regret
You let me forget
It's always dramatic, dramatic
You catch every breath
You love me to death
It's always dramatic, dramatic
I fall on my face
I fall into grace

More than my reasons why
More than my reasons why
More than my reasons

Safe
I sit with you now
I love you more than my reasons why
