

Jumping from Jaded Heights (The Rush, Pt. 2)

Kings Kaleidoscope

Waking up to face the haze of apathy
Show me every grace I lost the fight to see
I'm coming around
Remedy the piece of faith that broke in me
(I know where I'm going, I know where I'm going)
(I know where I'm going, I know where I'm going)
Take away the weight and flip the gravity
(I know where I'm going, I know where I'm going)
(I know where I'm going, I know where I'm going)
I'm leaving the ground

Oh
Jumping from jade heights
I see a rainbow
I feel the distant sky
You set a table
I need to taste again
Savor and sample
Take me to where you are
Burn in me!
Burn in me!

I know I'm going
(I know where I'm going, I know where I'm going)
(I know where I'm going, I know where I'm going)
I know I'm going
(I know where I'm going, I know where I'm going)
(I know where I'm going, I know where I'm going)
(I know where I'm going, I know where I'm going)
(I know where I'm going, I know where I'm going)
(I know where I'm going, I know where I'm going)
(I know where I'm going, I know where I'm going)
