

Sister ride, sister ride if you wanna
To a place I know that we can go
Where the hills come together
We can take it slow until you come around

There's a glow at the face of the canyon
And a sound blowing 'round
Says you're nowhere you've ever been before

Take a plunge into the Colorado River
Where you feel yourself for the very first time
I knew you'd be a friend of mine

Ooh
Fire's gonna rage if people don't change
Ooh
A story so old, still so original

You drift in and out like a thunder
Force my hand to get you out of here
Somewhere we can disappear
This is love although you've never seen it
We knew in time it had to be one of us
Never felt a warmer touch

Ooh
Fire's gonna rage if people don't change
Ooh
A story so old, still so original

Ooh
Fire's gonna rage if people don't change
Ooh
I'm chemically inclined to say what's on my mind
Ooh
You're getting pretty close, but you've got a little ways to go
Ooh
The story so old but still so original

You really laid it on the line, line, line, line, line, line, line,
ine
Oh, hit me one more time, time, time, time, time, time, time,
You really laid it on the line, line, line, line, line, line, line,
ine
Oh baby, hit me one more time, time, time, time, time, time, ti me
