

Don't Stop The Bleeding

Kings of Leon

Bombs away
Don't stop the bleeding
Why you always look so sad?
I think you're rad
Don't stop the bleeding

Why would you say
Just barely breathing?
Everything will never change
I'm awake
Just barely breathing

Sunshiny former glory
And your baby eye
Go on and write your story
I still want you to want to
I still want you to want to, ah

Don't stop the bleeding

You've got a way
I'm getting used to
Ah, you always make me smile
Once in a while
I won't deny you
While you're away
I'm left here waiting
All you gotta do is say
I'm on my way
I'm on my way

Sunshiny former glory
And your baby eye
Go on and write your story
I still want you to want to
I still want you to want to

Lightning strikes a pose and you're unfazed
It's never gonna take your place
It's never gonna take your place
One day, heaven knows, you'll run away
It's never gonna be okay
It's never gonna be okay

Don't stop the bleeding
Oh-oh-oh-oh
Don't stop the bleeding

Bombs away
Don't stop the bleeding
Why you always look so sad?
I think you're rad
Don't stop the bleeding
