

Southbound

Kings of Leon

Come on down and dance,
If you get the chance,
We're gonna steal on arrival.
All I wanna know,
Is how far you wanna go,
Fighting for survival.

Underneath the stars,
Where we parked the cars,
Ain't showing signs of stopping.
Pretty little girls,
Naked to their curves,
Ready to let the car run.
If you wanna go,
I'm gonna go,
I gotta fire burning.
Come on take my hand,
Hope you see your man,
Baby's gonna be a weird one.
Baby's gonna be a weird one.

If you see the lights,
and we hear the fights,
It's gonna be a stunner.
I've got something here,
If you give me one more beer,
I'm gonna call a runner.
I don't want to say,
What I have to say,
If I'm a' kicking off now.
If you wanna go,
I'm gonna go,
I'm going back down southbound.
I'm going back down southbound.
I'm going back down southbound.

If you wanna go,
I'm going back down southbound.
Go on take my hand,
I'm going back down southbound.
Wait 'til you see the light,
And we hear those fights,
I'm going back down southbound.
I don't want to know,
How far you wanna go,
I'm going back down southbound.

I'm going back down southbound.
I'm going back down southbound.
I'm going back down southbound.
I'm going back down southbound.
Oh, yeah.
I'm going back down southbound.
