

Let It Rain

King's X

Where are we now?
Somebody say
Is this the end of the world
Or a new beginning?
Calling all saviors
And I'm shouting out at God
Oh, won't you come and save us?
Don't you think we need you now?

So let it rain, wash the fear away
So let it rain, Lord, wash the fear away
So let it rain, wash it, wash it away

Got this anxious feeling
This runaway train ain't slowing down
Oh, I can hear it
Even though the world has got too loud
Now the prophet of doom is shouting
Something about a thief in the night
Oh, I have this question?
What if the truth was a lie

So let it rain, oh, to wash the fear away
So let it rain, yeah, to wash the fear away
So let it rain, oh, wash it, wash it away, yeah

Everybody wants their rights
Everybody wants to fight
Everybody justified
Everybody, everybody let it rain

Oh, wash the fear away
So let it rain, yeah, wash the fear away
So, so let it rain, wash the fear away
So, yeah, let it, let it, let it, let it rain
Yeah, let it rain (Everybody)
Oh, let it rain (Everybody, everybody)
