

Screamer

King's X

At night they come while you sleep
In between the wake and sleep
And then you feel paralyzed
And soon you end up screaming

Uh, uh, ah...

Sometimes the voices are so clear
The fear just grips your soul
You see but there's nothing there
You know you're not alone

No no ah...

Had a dream the other night, it didn't go away
Over and over again
Make the dreams go away, will they ever end
Over and over again

You wake, the feeling is relief
Then it comes, vibrations so strange
And then, oh no, you realize
You've woken up inside your dream

Oh no ah...

Had a dream the other night, it didn't go away
Over and over again
Make the dreams go away, will they ever end
Over and over again

Oh, no
