

Burn The Whole World Down

Kip Moore

I'm goin' back through that open door
And I won't be back no more
And if I'm gone, if I'm gone too long
Don't write me no sad song
I'll send you love
Through the cold black dark
From the bottom of my heart

You said it's hard to say I love you
But it's hard to say I don't
And that ain't enough to keep me hangin' around
If your daddy tries to stop me
I'm gonna make damn sure he don't
I'm gonna get out of this town
And burn the whole world down

Yeah Yeah oh ohhh ohhhh
Yeah Yeah oh ohhh ohhhh

Don't shed a tear, don't shed a tear for me
I'll be in good company
Just my guitar, and a lonesome road
Where I ain't scared to go
If in the night, you'll miss my kiss
Girl, just remember this

You said it's hard to say I love you
But it's hard to say I don't
And that ain't enough to keep me hangin' around
If your daddy tries to stop me
I'm gonna make damn sure he don't
I'm gonna get out of this town
And burn the whole world down

Yeah Yeah oh ohhh ohhhh
Yeah Yeah oh ohhh ohhhh

I'm gonna find the place
Where I'll make my mark
And set fire to the dark

You said it's hard to say I love you
But it's hard to say I don't
And that ain't enough to keep me hangin' around
If your daddy tries to stop me
I'm gonna make damn sure he don't
I'm gonna get out of this town
You said it's hard to say I love you
But it's hard to say I don't
And that ain't enough to keep me hangin' around
If your daddy tries to stop me
I'm gonna make damn sure he don't
I'm gonna get out of this town
And burn the whole world down
