

Crazy for You Tonight

Kip Moore

I don't care what you call me baby
And I don't care if I ain't your kind
And you might think I'm a little crazy
But I'm only crazy for you tonight

I don't care what your friends are saying
To tell the truth girl they might be right
There's games out there the boys are playing
But this boy's just crazy for you tonight

Yeah you can see I'm dangerous
I'm wild but weak, I need your touch
I'm in my heart and out of my mind
Yeah I'm just crazy, crazy for you tonight

You can go ahead girl and play it safe now
But in a world of squares baby love is round
All I need's just a chance to show how
I'm crazy, crazy for you tonight

Yeah you can see I'm dangerous
I'm wild but weak, I need your touch
I'm in my heart and out of my mind
Yeah I'm just crazy, crazy for you tonight

You might think I'm a little crazy
But I'm only crazy for you tonight
