

Hey Old Lover

Kip Moore

We haven't talked in quite awhile
Sure is good to hear your smile
Now that I've got you on the phone
Girl, you know
We weren't built to be alone
No, no

So, hey old lover, won't you come on over
Heard you're in between boyfriends from your mother
I always thought we'd end up together
Baby girl, right now nothin' sounds better than to
Lay around with someone I don't have to play pretend with
Someone who already knows what she's gettin'
Say you're comin' over, say the word
I'm on my way, hey, hey old lover

Now all the silence on the line
Makes me think, you think I'm right
Throw all your caution to the stars
Girl, you can't break a broken heart
No, no

So, hey old lover, won't you come on over
Heard you're in between boyfriends from your mother
I always thought we'd end up together
Baby girl, right now nothin' sounds better than to
Lay around with someone I don't have to play pretend with
Someone who already knows what she's gettin'
Say you're comin' over, say the word
I'm on my way, hey, hey old lover

So, hey old lover, won't you come on over
Heard you're in between boyfriends from your mother
I always thought we'd end up together
Baby girl, right now nothin' sounds better than to
Lay around with someone I don't have to play pretend with
Someone who already knows what she's gettin'
Say you're comin' over, say the word
I'm on my way, hey, hey old lover

Let's make some new love
Make some new love
Let's make some new love
