

Love & War

Kip Moore

There's blood in the water
And blood on my hands
No time for no cover
Lines in the sand

I'm walkin' this wire but I'm losin' control
Desperately searchin' for something to hold

'Cause all is fair
In love and war
So please give me somethin'
Worth fightin' for

Whatever it takes
Yeah, I'll play the fool
I'll bend till I break
Yeah
Break every rule

These tears I've been bleedin', this hell that I know
It's worth every fear, knowing I'm not alone

'Cause all is fair
In love and war
So please give me somethin'
Worth fightin' for

Just give me that somethin'
Somethin'

I'm fading but not on my knees
My faith is about all used up
As long as my heart has a beat
It's worth fighting, worth fighting for

'Cause all is fair
In love and war
So please give me somethin'
Worth fightin' for

Desperately searchin' for something to hold
It's worth every tear knowing I'm not alone
There's something worth fighting for
