

More than Enough

Kip Moore

Girl, I know we ain't got much
In a world that says you need a lot of stuff
That's okay, I say we got it made
Got a good ol' dog, a little stash of cash
Couple good rows poppin up out back, so

If Uncle Sam goes 'n steals my money
I'm good with a spoonful of your sweet honey
And I'll be sittin' pretty and rich on love, love, love
If the rain won't stop, and the sun don't shine
Hit a tough spot, baby we'll be fine
You in my arms is all I need
Just a little bit of your love
Is more than enough for me

I say the grass is pretty green right here
And this glass is past full baby cheers
To you, 'n me, to life, 'n dreams
To all the little simple things
Like this little piece of land
That we're on right now
If it gets any better
Hell I don't know how

If Uncle Sam goes 'n steals my money
I'm good with a spoonful of your sweet honey
And I'll be sittin' pretty and rich on love, love, love
If the rain won't stop, and the sun don't shine
Hit a tough spot, baby we'll be fine
You in my arms is all I need
Just a little bit of your love
Is more than enough for me

You're like the sugar in my coffee cup
A splash of coke in my jack, yeah
More than enough

If Uncle Sam goes 'n steals my money
I'm good with a spoonful of your sweet honey
And I'll be sittin' pretty and rich on love, love, love
If the rain won't stop, and the sun don't shine
Hit a tough spot, baby we'll be fine
You in my arms is all I need
Just a little bit of your love
Is more than enough for me
