

Only Me

Kip Moore

SOS
Can you see the smoke?
I've taken a water
There's fire below
Am I speakin' in tongues?
Can you hear what I'm sayin'?
My voice is breakin'
Tell me, where did everybody go?
How'd I wind up here alone?
Yeah

Hey
Is there anyone out there?
This radio nowhere
Ain't how it's supposed to be

Hey
Does anyone still care?
Are we breathin' the same air
Or is it only me?

Is there life on Mars?
I think I've arrived
And damn, this desolate desert dust
Keeps gettin' in my eyes
The only thing I hear
Is my echo off the canyon
While I scream across the great divide, yeah

Hey
Is there anyone out there?
This radio nowhere
Ain't how it's supposed to be

Hey
Does anyone still care?
Are we breathin' the same air
Or is it only me?
Me

Tell me, where did everybody go?
How'd I wind up here alone?
Every light is on
But it feels like no one's home

Hey
Is there anyone out there?
This radio nowhere
Ain't how it's supposed to be

Hey
Is there anyone out there?
This radio nowhere
Ain't how it's supposed to be

Hey
Does anyone still care?

Are we breathin' the same air
Or is it only me?
