Running for You

We had a good run But I knew, I knew, I knew I knew this day would come As bad as I want to Ain't no way, not me girl I ain't gonna stop you

But if the rain stops falling, falling on you And your heart stops breaking, breaking in two If the light starts fading, baby don't move Just say my name, stay right there I'll come running for you

I'm gonna miss you Baby there's no way that I can go with you So go on and chase it I know, I know, I know You can almost taste it Yeah, time's a wastin'

But if the rain stops falling, falling on you And your heart stops breaking, breaking in two If the light starts fading, baby don't move Just say my name, stay right there I'll come running for you

It's gonna be a long night And I might shed a tear But I'm a be alright
