

Sweet Virginia

Kip Moore

We missed the mornin' cause we rung out the night
And now I'm callin' did I say anything right
Did I do anything right

I heed no warnings I see no signs
Pay no attention that this might be the last time
Don't let it be the last time

Sweet Virginia if it's all just a game
Oh tell me my darling
Oh tell me what part I should play

This black cup of coffee sobers my mind
And now I can't shake the feelin'
That I left something behind
I think I left something behind

Sweet Virginia if it's all just a game
Oh tell me my darling
Oh tell me what part I should play

Well love is fleeting
But love ain't blind
I never thought that I was the sentimental kind
Guess I'm the sentimental kind

Sweet Virginia if it's all just a game
Oh tell me my darling
Oh tell me what part I should play

Sweet Virginia if it's all just a game
Oh tell me my darling
Oh tell me what part I should play

Oh yeah
