

California

Kip Winger

Looking around
At the house through her hand
Falling apart
As the walls turn to sand

She's waiting
Taking the bait
Of a beautiful escape
Wasting away
On a perfect sunny day in California

Facing the door
As she slips through a crack
She smiles in the dark
Cause she ain't coming back

She's waiting
Taking the bait
Of a beautiful escape
She's killing mistakes
On a perfect sunny day in California

Taking the bait
Of a beautiful escape
Wasting away
On a perfect sunny day in California
