

Under One Condition

Kip Winger

She's looking in the eye
Of a mind made up
That the pain will last
Forever

He's headed for a heart
All closed up
Will you ever open up?
She said
Never

What is the secret
To keeping your head
And your promises

(Oh) I'll mend your broken heart.... she said
Under one condition
If I lift you up, you'll never let me down
Darlin' under one condition

She stares at the sky
Wondering why the night
Isn't telling her
Believe him
If he could only read to her
The pages of his heart
She could see they feel
The same

Learning the secret
To keeping their heads
And their promises

(Oh) I'll mend your broken heart... he said
Under one condition
If I let you in, you'll never push me out
Darlin' under one condition
This is my one, This is my one condition

He's getting closer
And she's getting closer
Just one more question
One more answer
It was all they ever wanted.....

I'll mend your broken heart... she said
Under one condition
If I lift you up, you'll never let me down
Darlin' under one condition
