

something new

Kira Kosarin

Told me pack my bags
Braced myself for a heart attack
Said you booked a flight
To take me somewhere new
I'm good at making plans
So prepared for the worst I'm getting Used to skipping that
Used to trusting you

Like, oh
Maybe I let my guard down, maybe I let you in
Like, oh
Maybe I disregard the memories he left

And I let go
This is nothing like I've ever
Had before
I shut out my hesitation, now I'm
Closing my eyes, holding my breath (ah)
Heart in your hands, beat in my chest (ah)
Facing to the wind stream
Saying oh
I think you are something new

Oh-oh-oh-oh

Nights turn into days
I wake up to the worries till I
Turn and see your face
Remember that it's you

Like, oh
Maybe I let my guard down, maybe I let you in
Like, oh
Maybe I disregard the memories he left

And I let go
This is nothing like I've ever
Had before
I shut out my hesitation, now I'm
Closing my eyes, holding my breath (ah)
Heart in your hands, beat in my chest (ah)
Facing to the wind stream
Saying oh
And I think, oh

And I let go
(Maybe I let my guard down, maybe I let you in)
This is nothing like I've ever
Had before
(Maybe I disregard the memories he left)
I shut out my hesitation, now I'm
Closing my eyes, holding my breath (ah)
Heart in your hands, beat in my chest (ah)
Facing to the wind stream
Saying oh
I think you are something
