

Again

Kirk Franklin

See I don't know how
And I can't tell you when
When our fears will all fade
And a new season begins
But I know somehow
How the story will end
See I believe God for more
And if He did it before
He will do it again, again, again, again and again
God will do it again, again, again, again and again

I've been down before
I was born at the end
Never learned how to fly
Loneliness was my friend
So when the storm came
I looked deep in my soul
When the planet got loud
I knew just where to go
There's a secret place far above all the things I see, mmm
Where peace like a river flows to encourage me

See I don't know how
And I can't tell you when
When our fears will all fade
And a new season begins
But I know somehow, mmm
How the story will end
See I believe God for more, mmm
And if He did it before
He will do it again, again, again, again and again
It's not the end, the end, the end, the end, the end
God will do it again

See I don't mean to preach
Or try to tell you what's right
I've been rescued by love
So don't you give up the fight
There's a secret place far above all the things I see
Where peace like a river flows to encourage me

See I don't know how
And I can't tell you when
When our fears will all fade
And a new season begins
But I know somehow, oh
How the story will end
See I believe God for more
And if He did it before
See, it's not the end, the end, the end, the end, the end
God will do it again

I come to give you good news
We will rise up again
We will conquer the way
And by Faith, we will win

Oh, and that's good news in it
He'll provide all our needs
And forgive every sin
See, see Heaven hears your tears
When we cry out Your name
Then the healing begins
Thank you

See I don't know how
How the story will end
See I believe God for more
And if He did it before

Again, again and again
Again, again and again
Again, again and again
Said, He'll do it again, again, and again
Again, again and again
Again, again and again
Won't He do it, said He'll do it again, again, and again
Again, again and again
Again, again and again
Won't He do it, won't He do it again
