

Do It Again

Kirk Franklin

Hey God, it's me
You seem quiet lately
So glad to know You didn't forget about us

I know, I know, you know, we know
Life is harder than it's been before
And I know, I know, you know, we know
It's not the end, I'm here for so much more
See the tears we cry together
See this pain, it won't last forever
God is working on something for you
Somehow, right now, right now, yes, right now

Listen

Open your eyes, lift your head high
Know that His yes is on the way, He heard the prayers you prayed
So fight, I'm still alive
I made it through another day
Something's 'bout to change

Whatever I lost, it's not the end
Just know whatever He did before
He'll do it again
He'll do it again
He'll do it again
Let the church say, "Amen"

I need a witness up in here, let's go

I know, I know, you know, we know
I just need some light to shine my way
I see, I see, you see, we see
God's favor's 'bout to brighten my day
Every stumble happens for a reason
Every seed you planted, it is your season
God is working on something for you somehow
Right now, right now, yes, right now

Open your eyes, lift your head high
Know that His yes is on the way, He heard the prayers you prayed
So fight, I'm still alive
I made it through another day
Something's 'bout to change

Whatever I lost, it's not the end
Just know whatever He did before
He'll do it again
He'll do it again
He'll do it again
Let the church say, "Amen"

God, your children have been going through lately, but

Ain't nobody said it'd be easy
Joy is coming, please just believe me
Hold tight, don't let go

Even through stormy weather
Know for sho', promise it'll get better
So when you're down, down, down, down, down
Remember before, if He turned it around

He'll do it again
He'll do it again
He'll do it again
Let the church say, "Amen"

Help me now

Open your eyes, lift your head high
Know that His yes is on the way, He heard the prayers you prayed
So fight, I'm still alive
I made it through another day
Something's 'bout to change

Whatever I lost, it's not the end
Just know whatever He did before
He'll do it again
He'll do it again
He'll do it again
Let the church say, "Amen"

He'll do it again
He'll do it again
He'll do it again
Let the church say, "Amen"
Let the church say, "Amen"
