

Wynter's Promise

Kirk Franklin

Just let heaven be real
'Cause there are wounds deep inside Earth cannot heal
So many things we take to disguise how we feel
It's cool, but it just won't do
When you know something greater is waiting on you
Just let heaven be home
When everything around you reminds you you don't belong
Science and reason telling me that I am wrong
Don't believe in what you can't see
I see the unseen, I know there's something greater for me

My life, my life, my life, my life
Is sealed 'til the day the clouds look away
Your life, your life, your life, your life
Was hopeless and lost but love paid the cost
Who thinks creation's wrong
You crucified your own
Until the day when we're finally healed
Just let heaven be real

Just let heaven be true
If this all that's left, please tell me what do we do?
The hurting, the hopeless, they're all depending on you
Rescue me from this pain I see
We're crying freedom, nobody wants to be free

My life, my life, my life, my life
Is sealed 'til the day the clouds look away
Your life, your life, your life, your life
Was hopeless and lost but love paid the cost
Who thinks creation's wrong
You crucified your own
Until the day when we're finally healed
Just let heaven be real

Just let heaven be mine
We can't stay here forever no matter how hard we try
And when it's my time, let my babies know that I'll be fine
In the end, we will laugh again
No more goodbyes, and the sun always will shine

My life, my life, my life, my life
Is sealed 'til the day the clouds look away
Your life, your life, your life, your life
Was hopeless and lost but love paid the cost
Who thinks creation's wrong
You crucified your own
Until the day when we're finally healed
Just let heaven be real
Just let heaven be real

2x

Ooh, there's no more shame and
Ooh, farewell to pain and
Ooh, He'll kiss our tears and

Ooh, scars disappear and
You will say "Well done" and
Soon, we'll meet the sun
It's all a dream until I see your face

Ooh, there's no more shame and
Ooh, farewell to pain and
Ooh, He'll kiss our tears and
Ooh, scars disappear and
You will say "Well done" and
Soon, we'll meet the sun
Mama, I can't wait to see your face

But while I'm here without you,
I will continue to live out your legacy.
I can feel you smiling down.
I'll see you soon, really soon
