

See It

Kirstin

You smile right back at me
(I can see it, I can see it)
Your lies are at your story
(I can see it)
(I can see it) through your tears
Don't you go playing me like I'm a fool
Ooh you think you got me but I'm looking right through
Pull my strings and now I'm cutting loose
(I can see it, I can see it)
(I can see it, I can see it)

I can't hide this feeling, paint a smile on
Had me believing, but now I know you're wrong
Don't need another reason, cause I'm leaving
Don't need another reason, cause I can see it, I can see it
I can't hide this feeling, paint a smile on
Had me believing, but now I know you're wrong
Don't need another reason, cause I'm leaving
Don't need another reason, cause I can see it, I can see it

Words cut to the bone
(I can feel it, I can feel it)
Crept your way in close
(I can feel it, I can feel it)
Now I know that you've been playing me like I'm a fool
Ooh you think you got me but I'm looking right through
Pull my strings and now I'm cutting loose
(Cause I can see it, I can see it)
(I can see it, I can see it)

I can't hide this feeling, paint a smile on
Had me believing, but now I know you're wrong
Don't need another reason, cause I'm leaving
Don't need another reason, cause I can see it, I can see it
I can't hide this feeling, paint a smile on
Had me believing, but now I know you're wrong
Don't need another reason, cause I'm leaving
Don't need another reason, cause I can see it, I can see it

Now, my eyes are open, eyes are open
Ain't no way I'll ever close 'em, ever close 'em
Cause I can see your colors bleeding through
Cause I can see your colors bleeding through
And now, my eyes are open, eyes are open
Ain't no way I'll ever close 'em, ever close 'em
Cause I can see your colors bleeding through
Cause I can see your colors bleeding through

I can't hide this feeling, paint a smile on
Had me believing, but now I know you're wrong
Don't need another reason, cause I'm leaving
Don't need another reason, cause I can see it, I can see it
I can't hide this feeling, paint a smile on
Had me believing, but now I know you're wrong
Don't need another reason, cause I'm leaving
Don't need another reason, cause I can see it, I can see it
