

Doomsday

Kisschasy

cheer up its not yet doomsday i wont be gone to long let go open your parachute the wind guides us into the sun
the sun

breathe in open your ventilin i can see your house from here i felt that perfect landing place sing out so all below can hear can hear
can hear
can hear

and didnt you know that this is what i do and didnt you know that
we will lose

this is what i do
and didnt you know that
we will lose
we will lose
we will lose
