

Hellbeing

Kississippi

I'm sorry you put your heart in
God awful unapologetic friends
I'm sorry I became like them
They're not like you
I wanna be the bigger one
Know I could be a worthy creature
Smother whatever's creating
I won't burn all your daylight on me
An eyesore, a hellbeing
Eyesore, a hellbeing
Come on, burn all your daylight on me
An eyesore, a hellbeing
Before you were lonely
You showed me your family
Made a martyr of me
In my heart perpetually

Do you think I deserved it?
Do you think I deserve you?

I won't burn all your daylight on me
An eyesore, a hellbeing
Eyesore, a hellbeing
Come on, burn all your daylight on me
An eyesore, a hellbeing
Eyesore
A hellbeing
Building a breach in me
Erasing me
Barren but overflowing
Before you
If I wasn't so selfish
Do you think we could be friends
Like back when you were the best?
Burn all your daylight on me
An eyesore, a hellbeing
Eyesore, a hellbeing
Come on, burn all your daylight on me
An eyesore, a hellbeing
Eyesore, a hellbeing

Do you think I deserved it?
Do you think I deserve you?
