

I know the color of the sea
Washing your water over me
Listen the lighter, your cigarette
Leads you [?] forgets you

Dreams will come
Keep us both alive
And I found love
Kiss the stories died
Perfect world, you die

We are the diamonds in the sand
Burning alive forever, you are
And now it's a beauty and a satin grace
The way that he dives and walks into place

Dreams will come
Keep us both alive
And I found love
Kiss the stories died
Perfect world, you die
Perfect world, you die

Perfect world, you die
Perfect world, you die
Perfect world, you die

Dreams will come
Keep us both alive
And I found love
Kiss the stories died
Perfect world, you die
Perfect world, you die

I know the color of the sea
Washing your water over me
And now it's a beauty and a satin grace
The way that he dives and walks into place

Perfect world, you die
Perfect world, you die
Perfect world, you die
