Kitten

I'm here, and I'm sorry that I'm late
Heavy tears and a rhythm
The rhythm of the saint
The rhythm of the saints

Outside and I'm drowning in the fire
Black ties and the river, the river of her blood
The river of your blood
I can't feel you
But I know you are alive
You're alive

Now they've let you on T.V...
And Lia
Now you're a star
We loved you when you were so young
Serenaded by your silver tongue
No I would never
Sell those memories
They leave me cold and hypnotized
Tired of sleeping next to your disguise
Oh Lia...

Out here it's static and rain
Long nights with the voices
The voices in my brain
There's voices in my brain
I can't feel you
But I know you are alive

You're alive
And I remember
The clear sky
Almost let me drown

Now they've let you on T.V...
Lia
Now you're a star
We loved you when you were so young
Serenaded by your silver tongue
No I would never
Sell those memories
They leave me cold and hypnotized
Tired of sleeping next to your disguise
Oh Lia

What you say
Can't erase my love
What you say
Can't erase my love
Can't erase my love

Lia
Now you're a star
We loved you when you were so young
Now you're hated for your silver tongue
No I would never

Sell those memories
They leave me cold and hypnotized
Tired of sleeping next to your disguise
Oh Lia
Oh Lia
Oh Lia
