

My Rules

Kitten

I don't really care 'cause he's my boyfriend
I don't really care that he calls new girls
When I'm with my girls I just forget him
And I don't really care 'cause he loves me too

My rules
My rules, my rules, my rules
My rules, my rules, my rules
My rules, my rules, my rules

Does he love me, does he love me not?
I'm not a bad girl, I just like to drink a lot
Twenty-seven when I join the club
Then I'll be the rock star they thought I was

Sad bitches ain't got nothin' on me
Cuffed wrists and they're scanning footprints
Wrist spun like a Super Soaker
Beads swimmin' in and out like the plastic on my choker

I don't really care 'cause he's my boyfriend
I don't really care that he calls new girls
When I'm with my girls I just forget him
And I don't really care 'cause he loves me too

My rules
My rules, my rules, my rules
My rules, my rules, my rules
My rules, my rules, my rules

Does he love me, does he love me not?
I'll take a bullet and I'll take it like a dirty cop
Maybe later but we'll do it now
Ready to die, and I'll show you how

Lay it down, bad girlies knocked up 'cha
Pull the trigger, then they'll know who shot ya
Feel my booty and I won't ask why
I just like boys, they're a waste of my time

Hey, it's me
I called you last night
You didn't get back
Lizzie said she saw you with some girl
Just wanted to let you know I'm coming back Friday
We never plan to have A breakup

I don't really care 'cause he's my boyfriend
I don't really care that he calls new girls
When I'm with my girls I just forget him
And I don't really care 'cause he loves me too

My rules
My rules, my rules, my rules
My rules, my rules, my rules
My rules, my rules, my rules

My rules
My rules, my rules, my rules
My rules, my rules, my rules
My rules, my rules, my rules
