Straight faced In your embrace Gripped around my heart Innocent I plead my case I'm never going back Please don't unwind This tether twined Around your heart This tether breaks Decay Erase Finish what you start I know that it's not too late To save us from ourselves Remember when your smile Made everything worthwhile Finish what you start