

I've Kissed You My Last Time

Kitty Wells

Down the road of love I see sign after sign
That tells me you're no longer mine
But a heart full of love is a heart sad and blind
I love you so and it hurts me to know that
I've kissed you my last time

Every sign that I see tells me you're not for me
But I cherish thoughts of days gone by
I'll be your slave till I'm in my grave
I love you so and it hurts me to know that
I've kissed you my last time

I have searched everywhere but there's nothing can compare
With the thrill of your kiss that once was mine
But now your kiss is so cold, don't know what the future holds
I love you so and it hurts me to know that
I've kissed you my last time
