

My Big Truck Drivin' Man

Kitty Wells

I'm just a waitress at this truck stop I keep the jukebox playi ng and the coffee hot Temptation's everywhere but I must stand I'm in love with my bi g truck drivin' man I keep lookin' out the window he's on my mind he's been gone al most a week this time
I can't wait till he walks through that door again
Oh how I miss my big truck drivin' man I'll ask him if he feels the way I do I can almost hear him say ing I love you We'll walk through the jukebox hand in hand
And he'll kiss me my big truck drivin' man

I call him the truck stop pinball king cause he knows how to be at that old machine He's savin' money to buy me a wedding band oh how I love my big truck drivin' man I'll ask him if he feels
And he'll kiss me my big truck drivin' man
