

The Wreck Of Number Two

Kitty Wells

As you leave to meet the girl who's now your number one
Look at me I'm the wreck of number two

That's some announcement that you made this mornin'
When you told me what you plan to do
Someone else now occupies the first place in your heart
Look at me I'm the wreck of number two

Take a look as you go at the pieces
Of the one who gave all she had to you
As you leave to meet the girl who's now your number one
Look at me I'm the wreck of number two

I'm grateful that my pride is still left standin'
So I don't have to beg you not to go
They tell me that the good Lord watches over fools like me
Don't think twice about this fool who loves you so

Take a look as you go at the pieces
Of the one who gave all she had to you
As you leave to meet the girl who's now your number one
Look at me I'm the wreck of number two

Here I am I'm the wreck of number two
