Your cell phone, your wallet, your time, your ideas No barcode, no party, no id, no beers Your bankcard, your license, your thoughts, your fears No simcard, no disco, no photo, not here

Your blood, your sweat, your passions, your regrets Your office, your time off, your fashions, your sex Your pills, your grass, your tits, your ass. Your laughs, your bones

We write it all

We want your soul

Tell us your habits, your facts, your fears Give us your address, your shoe size, your years Your digits, your plans, your number, your eyes Your schedule, your desktop, your details, your life.

Show us your children, your photos, your home.

Here, take credit, take insurance, take a loan.

Get a job, get a pension, get a haircut, get a suit.

Play the lottery, play football, play the field, sports on toot

We'll show you things we'll show you swings We'll buy you things, drugs, big yard, birds We'll sell you crap we'll charge you fat We're gonna find big guns & a drunk in your kitchen

We want your soul

Your thoughts, your emotions, your love, your dreams Your cheque book, your residence, your sweat, your screams Your security, your sobriety, your innocence, your society Your self, your place, your distance, your speed
