

The Night

Klaxons

Be aware, half is promised
Believe, what I say
Before, I go forever
Be sure, of what you say

So do you paint a pretty picture?
And he tells you that he needs you
And he covers you with flowers
And he always keeps you dreaming
If he always keeps you dreaming
You won't have a lonely hour
If a day could last forever
You might like your ivory tower

But the night begins to turn your head around

Be aware, half is promised
Believe, what I say
Before, I go forever
Be sure, of what you say

For the words may come too easy
If you don't believe I'm leaving
And goodbye may come too quickly
If you really think he loves you
If you really think he loves you
You would give your love so sweetly
And the day would last forever
You would fall in love completely

But the night begins to turn your head around
Yes the night begins to turn your head around

But the night begins to turn your head around
And you know you're gonna lose more than you found
Yes the night begins to turn your head around
