

Music for Girl

Kleerup

No, oh no
You broke her heart in two
She should have seen it coming
The way you seemed when she was humming
"I need for you to need me too"
She didn't even notice
He stopped calling her "honey"
And they used to share favorite things
She used to find him funny
He would say
She made the songs into her lovers
She retaliated
At least I'm not alone
The songs, you know
They never leave you for another
All night
She knew that he was right
If she was forced to choose
He'd be leaving anyway
She never could stand
When it was quiet
If she was forced to choose
He'd be leaving anyway
She never could stand
When it was quiet
