

Waking up to another day
Fading memories won't go away
I wanna scream, call out your name
Somebody help me, I'm drowning
Is this the way things are meant to be?
Our own story in destiny
I made a wish and gave it to a star
All that I wish for is what you are

No matter where to feel your heart
I'll go wherever you, -ever you are
There's no stopping, our worlds apart
I'll go wherever you, -ever you are

Fall asleep in an empty space
When I close my eyes I see your face
I turn an image that haunts my dreams
We are [?] all that could've been

Is this the way things are meant to be?
Our own story in destiny
I made a wish and gave it to a star
All that I wish for is what you are

No matter where to feel your heart
I'll go wherever you, -ever you are
There's no stopping, our worlds apart
I'll go wherever you, -ever you are (x3)
