

Never Ever

Klimt 1918

here in your smiling here with the sorrow snow and rain here I long now here in you smilin` noone will see me .. here scream in love.. see .. real love
save .. me sing along street of love
I stand alone
I wait for you
you come here .. we're like the wings of butterflies spreading lie like noone of this my lonelynes I hear as your spirit comes here my sorrow dissappear I'm screaming all that loud...

you never see me as I'm standing to you i wanna live i wanna touch your face you never really look at down at me while I keep waiting after dreaming for you you never really wanna kiss me and now I spoiled sorrow but that's real I see you really trough your eyes and say:
....

You never really trow your eyes at me you never really wanted to see me you never wondered how long I stayed you never feeled how many times I prayed you trought your eyes you want to look at me I wanna stay but I wanna sream And when I scream I want it to be real when did you see me trough you right at me you never wondered just how much I care You never screamed and never touched my face you never, ever, ever touched my.. face..

For the choice of a girl I used to know
