

Somewhere New

Klingande

Yesterday is not today, I know that I won't get another chance
No lookin' back, the time is gone, we turned the page, the past is in the past

Why don't we stand up to a love we know will last?
Cause if we don't start now then we might not get the chance

Hide away the sunlight
Finding, you can be my sunshine
Trying to become one
I found it all in you
So just let me know

We can go somewhere new
I don't need the sunlight
We can go somewhere new
I don't need the sunlight
We can go somewhere new
I don't need the sunlight
(I don't need the sunlight)
We can go somewhere new
I don't need the sunlight
We can go somewhere

Oh baby, baby, I can't find you
Oh baby, baby, wait up, I can't find you
Oh baby, baby, I can't find you
Oh baby, baby, wait up...

Yesterday seems far away, I know that we are never turning back
We chased the days and played away and the past is in the past

Hide away the sunlight
Finding, you can be my sunshine
Trying to become one
I found it all in you
So just let me know

We can go somewhere new
I don't need the sunlight
We can go somewhere new
I don't need the sunlight
We can go somewhere new
I don't need the sunlight
We can go somewhere new
I don't need the sunlight
We can go somewhere

Oh baby, baby, wait up, I can't find you
Oh baby, baby, I can't find you
Oh baby, baby, wait up...

We can go somewhere new
I don't need the sunlight
I don't need the sunlight
(I don't need the sunlight)

We can go somewhere new
I don't need the sunlight
We can go somewhere

Oh baby, baby, wait up...

Go somewhere new
