Talk with friends 'round me, don't

20/20 vision, got you with precision
It would take more than 1 or 2
To get me so into you (I'm not in your eyes)
I'm pretty jaded and I didn't even say that (I want you)
When you hit me up, there's no reply
Once you're coming on, I go offline

You're the one that sent the message
I don't need you at my beck and call
What makes you so sure? (On and on)
When you're the one that instigated
I had not reciprocated, no
Writing's on the wall

And you wonder why I didn't come back
Don't wanna think twice on the contact
Another wild ride, another nightcap
I gave you one try

And you wonder why I didn't come back
Don't wanna think twice on the contact
Another wild ride, another nightcap
I gave you one try till you're making me your alibi

No disrespect, I just wanna keep it candid
Guessing we've got different standards, so low
I'm not feeling it, and thanks to my intuition
Got me dodging a collision at last

You're the one that sent the message
I don't need you at my beck and call
What makes you so sure? One day
You're the one that sent the message
I reciprocated
No, ball's not in your court

And you wonder why I didn't come back
Don't wanna think twice on the contact
Another wild ride, another nightcap
I gave you one try

And you wonder why I didn't come back
Don't wanna think twice on the contact
Another wild ride, another nightcap
I gave you one try till you're making me your alibi

And you wonder why I didn't come back
Don't wanna think twice on the contact
Another wild ride, another nightcap
I gave you one try

And you wonder why I didn't come back
Don't wanna think twice on the contact (Wanna keep it candid)
Another wild ride, another nightcap

I gave you one try till you're making me your alibi

One time, one time, one try till I am your alibi

One time, one time, one try till I am your alibi

One time, one time, one try till I am your alibi

One time, one time, one try
